Early Help

Children and young people can experience a range of difficulties at any time in their life. Leicester City Councils Early help services are for children and young people of any age and can be supported from all kinds of services and organisations who work together to support the family.

Introduction to Early Help video

Watch What is Early Help? By Lily, Year 10, Acland Burghley School - YouTube to learn more about what the early help service is all about.

TASK

Challenge the individual or team to reflect on their knowledge of the Early Help service.

Do they know what it is?

Do they know what it sets out to achieve?

Do they know who can access it?

Do they know how to access it?

Do they know how to refer?

Do they know how to complete an Early Help assessment? (EHA)

TASK

Use the What is Early Help? By Lily, Year 10, Acland Burghley School - YouTube to introduce the topic and then explore the website and resources available. Work through the questions to consolidate learning. Display the resources in the setting.
