

SEND Unit in Leicester City

What is a SEND unit in Leicester city?

	A SEND Unit is a small specialist classroom inside a mainstream school.
	It gives children with special educational needs extra, long-term support.
	Children spend time learning in the SEND Unit.
	They also join mainstream classes and activities when it is right for them.
	This helps children get the support they need while still being part of school life.